

NESD Family Violence Prevention Conference

May 15th & 16th, 2018

Please join us for the Northeast South Dakota Conference on Family Violence in Aberdeen, SD on May 15-16th, 2018.

The training is designed for professionals working with families experiencing child maltreatment, trauma, and violence. Several nationally-known speakers are on the agenda to discuss the latest research, practical experience and methods of addressing all forms of maltreatment.

Speakers:

Casey Gwinn: Former prosecutor & founder of Family Justice Center

Olga Trujillo: Survivor of child sexual, physical and emotional abuse,

Marcus Bruning: retired Law Enforcement officer

Dr. Kristine Fortine: Physician at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia's Safe Place

Hollie Strand: Forensic Examiner from Pennington County Sheriff's Office

Topics to include: Domestic Violence Investigations to Prosecutions, Impact of Physical and Sexual Abuse, Understanding Violence Behaviors, Exploring Trauma and Dissociation, Accidental vs. Intentional Injuries, Crimes Against Children, Evaluating Sexual Abuse, and so many more! For the full agenda please contact us at nesdfamilyviolenceconference@gmail.com

Registration fee: $25 (limited number of scholarships available)

CEU will be available for Counselors and Social Work professionals.

A block of rooms has been reserved at the Best Western Ramkota Hotel in Aberdeen, SD under the Northeast South Dakota Family Violence Conference.

Brown County State's Attorney's Office and Safe Harbor collaborated to bring this conference to you. For more information or to register please contact nesdfamilyviolenceconference@gmail.com or call Safe Harbor at (605)-226-1212